

The North Central Valley STEM Education Award

The North Central Valley STEM Education Award is open to any outstanding high school junior or senior that has excelled in STEM throughout their high school careers and in their communities. Applicants must be a full-time student, of good character with a GPA of 2.5 or above. Students must be nominated by teacher or another appropriate school staff member. Please also include a minimum of one letter of support written by a staff member or the community member at large. Application deadline is April 17, 2020. The award recipient will receive $500. Please send the completed form and letter of support to Bret States: bstates@sjcoe.net or call 209.468.4961 for additional information.

High School Name: _____.

Name of Nominating Staff Member _____.

Student name: _____.

Please list the names STEM courses or other applicable courses taken (To be completed by student):

Please list any extracurricular activities you participate in (To be completed by student):

In a paragraph or two please indicate why you believe this student would good candidate for this award: