

DO YOU NEED HELP

... WITH DISTANCE LEARNING?

The Educational Services Department at the San Joaquin County Office of Education has specialist in Language and Literacy, Mathematics and STEM who are glad to chat with parents and teachers to support them in the process of teaching and learning remotely. Just tune in weekday afternoons at bit.ly/sjcoedistance.

Instructor Support for Teachers

As teachers are implementing new lessons, new strategies and new technology we are there to answer questions when the day is done.

Learner Support for Families

As you are helping your children learn a new way, we are there to answer questions when "homework" begins.

Mini Forums on Relevant Topics

Teacher office hours start with a short discussion of a topic relevant to distance learning: Effective Use of Breakout Rooms, Hyperlinked Calendars, Screencasting, etc.

We Are There If You Need Us

Teacher office hours are from 3 p.m. - 4 p.m. and family office hours are from 4 p.m. - 5 p.m. Just drop in week days from Aug. 15 through Sept. 25, 2020 at bit.ly/sjcoedistance.
